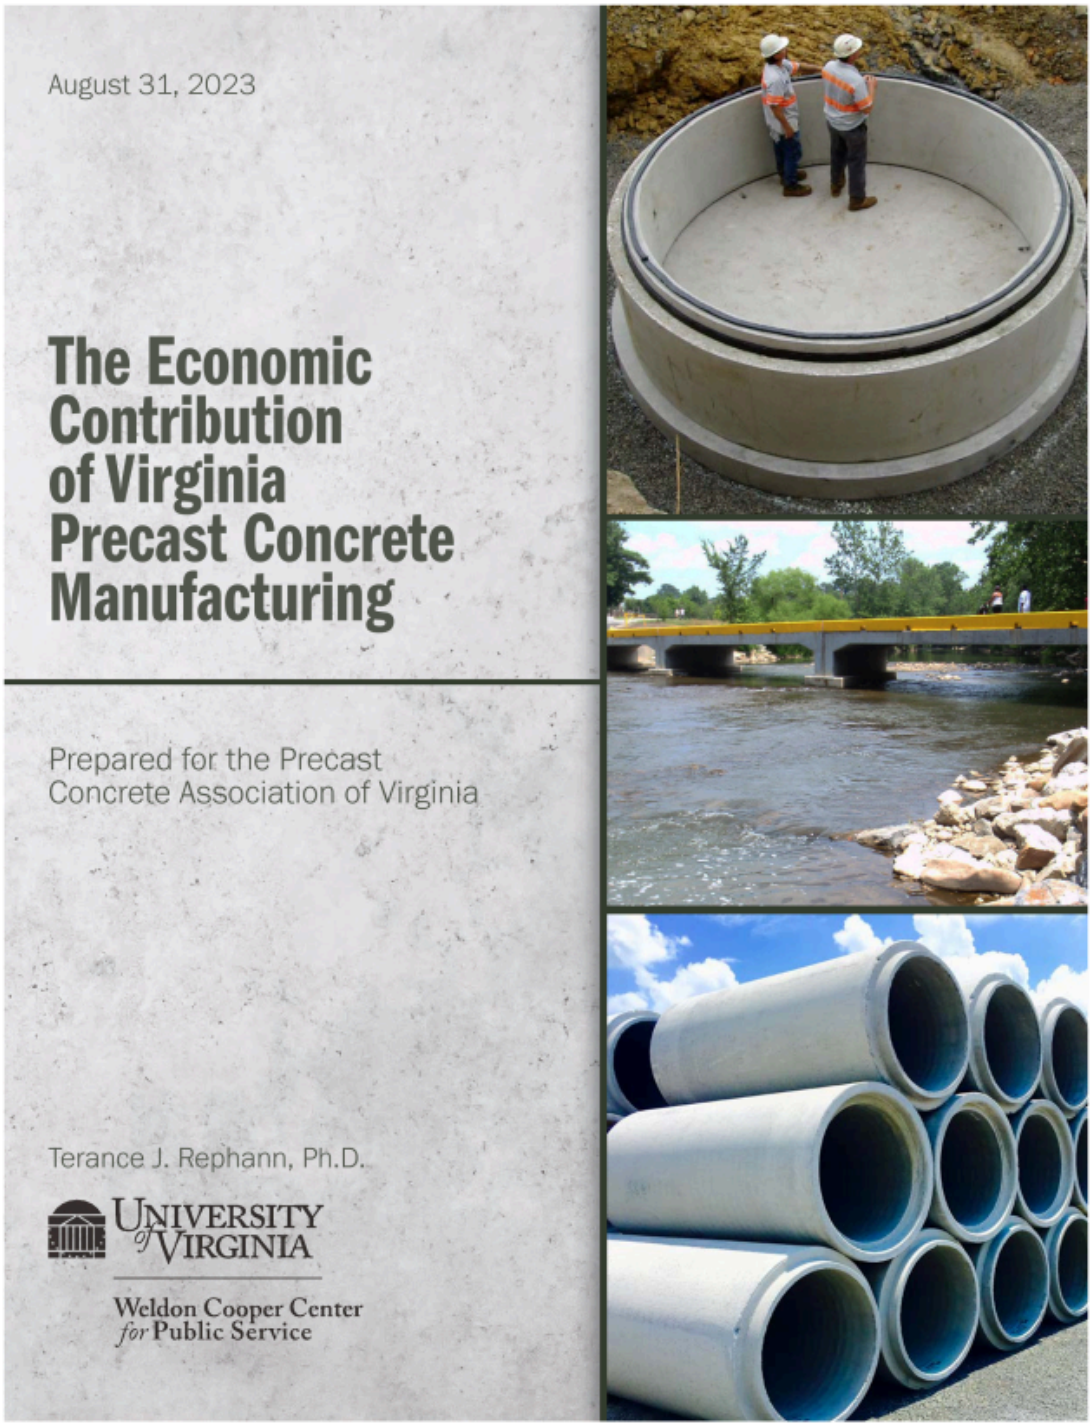
Dear Members,

Thank you for your active engagement and continued support of the PCAV. Associations are only as strong as their members—and PCAV is no exception. Your membership is an investment in the strength, visibility, and future of Virginia's precast concrete industry. The work we do is foundational to the Commonwealth, its resilience, safety, innovation, and the infrastructure that connects our communities.

We hope that you will join us for our 2026 PCAV Winter Meeting on Tuesday, January 27, and our Legislative Day, January 28.

With a new gubernatorial administration and new members of the Virginia General Assembly, this is a valuable opportunity to meet legislators and discuss the benefits of precast and the economic contribution provided by the industry.



The Economic Contribution of Virginia Precast Concrete Manufacturing

You'll find a number of important updates and highlights in this edition of HardFacts, including:

- 2026 PCAV Member Dues Renewal
- Registration for our 2026 PCAV Winter Meeting and Legislative Day
- PCAV Legislative Resource Webpage
- Virginia Concrete Conference
- In Case You Missed It: A new promotional video from NPCA

- Call for member news submissions

As always, we are thankful for this year's financial support from the Southern Cement Promotion Association (SCPA) and its members. We value our long standing partnership and are pleased to sponsor and exhibit during the Virginia Concrete Conference in Richmond, March 12-13, 2026.

Thank you for your continued engagement with the PCAV, through membership, collaboration, advocacy, and the high-caliber projects you deliver across the state. I am proud to serve alongside you.

Warm regards,

Scott Crumpler
Vice President, Business Performance | Concrete Pipe & Precast, a CMC Precast Business; President, Precast Concrete Association of Virginia

2026 PCAV Dues Renewal

Associations are only as strong as their members—and PCAV is no exception. Your membership is not just a line item; it is an investment in the strength, visibility, and future of Virginia's precast concrete industry. As we begin a new year, we reflect on our progress and look ahead to how PCAV can continue delivering tangible value on your behalf.

Because of your support in 2025, PCAV:

- Welcomed new members, strengthening our collective voice and industry influence.
- Worked alongside industry partners to strengthen the Commonwealth's infrastructure assets and promote resilient construction solutions.
- Expanded our communications and social media presence to highlight PCAV achievements, elevate member companies, and extend our reach with decision-makers.
- Delivered high-value education and training for contractors, federal and state DOT engineers, consulting engineers, and specifiers—directly supporting project readiness and industry standards.
- Shared the Economic Impact Study from the UVA Weldon Cooper Center with leadership, reinforcing the critical role precast concrete plays in Virginia's economy.

With your renewed membership in 2026, PCAV will:

- Grow producer and associate membership, increasing industry alignment and advocacy strength.
- Build strong relationships with Governor-elect Abigail Spanberger and her administration to ensure our industry's priorities are understood early and often.

- Expand our legislative influence by educating both new and returning members of the Virginia General Assembly about precast concrete, our collective priorities and concerns.
- Increase education and training opportunities in partnership with PCAV producer and associate members, national industry associations, and VDOT—providing practical, project-focused learning for contractors, engineers, and specifiers.
- Maintain consistent engagement with industry partners through at least three in-person meetings each year, supported by virtual meetings as needed.

As we move toward 2026, your continued membership is essential to sustaining this momentum. Dues directly support PCAV's advocacy efforts, education programs, relationship-building, and communications—ensuring your interests are represented where decisions are made.

Please contact Katie Hellebush via email to renew your dues today.

Thank you to our Sponsors (as of 1-19-2025)

NCPA New Precast Concrete Promotional Video

In the past, precast concrete was primarily considered a basic, utilitarian material. It wasn't considered cutting edge or versatile for a wide range of applications. Since then, we have redefined our product, and turned it into the total package, with attributes you might not expect.
